

London, 17-18th March 2016

Clinical Neurosciences Centre, 33 Queen Square, London, WC1N 3BG

Joint meeting of the British and French Neuropsychological Societies (BNS/SNLF)

NEUROPSYCHOLOGY

Invited Speakers:

Lars Nyberg

Lionel Naccache

Dorothy Bishop (BNS Freda Newcombe lecture)

Michaela Dewar (BNS Elizabeth Warrington prize)

Symposia:

Autobiographical Memory (Martin Conway, Lilianne Manning, Emily Holmes, Pascale Piolino)

Genetics and Neuropsychology (Julie Snowden, Fabienne Collettte, Annette Karmiloff-Smith)

Call for abstracts now OPEN

(until 17th December 2015)

We welcome presentations on any topic relevant to the society. Please submit a 250 word abstract structured with the following subheadings: objectives, methods, results and conclusions to Paul Hoffman (Meetings Secretary), stating preference for oral or poster presentation. Email: p.hoffman@ed.ac.uk

Travel bursaries will be offered by SNLF and BNS for students and early career researchers. Please visit your society's website for more information: www.snlf.net www.the-bns.org

Registration is free for members of either society. For non-members, we charge £20/€25 and a reduced rate of £10/€12.50 for students.

Merci de contacter Céline Souchay (LPNC, UMR CNRS 5105, Grenoble) pour plus d'information : celine.souchay@me.com